SPANISH NOT ITALIAN

In the article in the last issue of the Kentuckian, referring to the offer made for association lugs a year ago, the word Italian was unintentionally used instead of Spanish. The Italian government is not a purchaser of lugs, except the higher grades, equal to low leaf. The Spanish trade demands the classes designated in the grades printed in this issue as low, common, medium and good lugs, graded this year at $6, $6.50, $7 and $8, or an average of $6.875. These grades priced are now being sold by the association at $5.50 and $6 with a year's expenses added, and the new price is 875 cents higher than the offer of a year ago. With a glutted market, and the low grades obtainable in other markets, these prices are prohibitive for those grades of tobacco, at least until all other supply sources have been exhausted. Why cannot the association put this tobacco on the market in open competition and let it be sold loose while it will bring the farmer a price that will net more than it will after being stored for a year.

The perjured alibi is not always the best defense. Ed Marshall, the Keefoot night rider, who admitted his guilt, but pleaded for sympathy on the ground that Rankin was killed over his protest, came within two votes of acquittal.

The deadlock continues in the Illinois senatorial race, with Hopkins making no gains.

TEN JURORS

Stood Out For Acquittal In Marshall's Case.

Union City, Jan. 28.—After being out for sixteen hours the jury in the Ed Marshall night rider trial, reported this morning that they could not agree on a verdict.

"Do you think you can agree in two days or six months?" asked Judge Jones.

"No sir," was the reply of the foreman and the jury was at once discharged. They stood ten for acquittal and two for murder in the second degree.

After a lengthy argument, in which the attorneys for Marshall agreed to make a bond of $25,000, Judge Jones overruled the motion for bail, and remanded the prisoner to jail.

Newspaper Man Gets Place.

Rid Reed, of McCracken county, lately of Livingston, and a well-known newspaper man, has been appointed by the board of prison commissioners as register clerk at the Eddyville prison for the purpose of inaugurating the Bertillon system of measuring the prisoners. He is a splendid Democrat and worthy of the compliment paid him in every way.—Smithland Banner.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send the list of testimonials.

TO LYNCH NEGRO

Caught in Girls' Dormitory Help is at Hand for T. S. Anderson at Richmond.

Richmond, Ky., Jan. 28.—A negro was discovered in the girls' dormitory of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School here last night while the girls, numbering 200, were at supper. The male students in nearby buildings were attracted by the screams of the girls, and, learning the cause, pulled down the open window and locked the doors. Some then stood guard while others went for a rope. The police had been notified in the meantime, and an officer arrived in the patrol wagon just as the students got back with the rope.

After some persuasion the students allowed the officer to take charge of the prisoner, who proved to be Will Denham, for many years driver of a baggage wagon for a transfer company. Coming to town, when nearing the alleyway, the negro leaped from the wagon and made his escape.

BROTHER'S DEBTS.

Help is at Hand for T. S. Anderson at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 26.—It is currently reported all over Owensboro and neither confirmed nor denied by those in a position to know, that William K. Anderson, a Detroit (Mich.) banker, has offered to pay off all the obligations of his brother, T. S. Anderson, to the Daviess County Bank and Trust company, on condition that T. S. Anderson be pardoned. T. S. Anderson is now under sentence to three years' confinement in the penitentiary for swearing to a false statement of the bank of which he was formerly president. The false statement was in regard to his personal obligations to the institution.

Most Owensboro people who have heard of the proposition from Detroit believe it to be true, as W. K. Anderson is a wealthy man and is also passionately fond of his older brother, now in the Daviess county jail under such a heavy sentence. The debts of Mr. Anderson and those of his family, on which he is sole indorser, amount to $130,000. It is known here that W. K. Anderson could easily pay this amount, and it is believed that he would give as much for the freedom of his brother.

As the debts of T. S. Anderson and his family make one of the largest holes in the assets of his bank, the depositors are enthusiastic about the acceptance of the proposition, in order that they may get as large a per cent as possible on their claims. The attorneys for the state in the recent prosecution have not expressed themselves. T. S. Anderson is 66 years old and his brother is only a few years younger.
